TALL COMMUTED.

The Sentence of the Alleged Duluth Smelter Reduced.

It is stated on good authority that Governor Merriam has commuted the sentence of J. B. Tall, one of the real estate conspirators tried in the winter of 1890-91 for forging the name of Christian P. Lindstedt to a note for $500, from six years to one year. Tall will therefore be released in about a month.

The trials of Tall, Partello and Thayer, all of whom worked together in the case, created a good-sized sensation at the time and their conviction was only secured by the able work of M. D. Munro. It is understood that additional facts have come out since the trial which warrant the exercise of executive clemency.

Carlton County Attorney.

Judge Ensign today sustained the county commissioners of Carlton county in fixing the salary of their county commissioners at $800. The county attorney, Alpheus Woodward, wanted $1200. Judge Ensign got the population and fees of the county attorney of each county in the state and found that in eight counties of 2000 people the county attorney received from $150 to $1000 per year. In thirty-one counties with a larger population than Carlton the salary of the county attorney averaged from $400 to $750. In view of these facts it appeared that the county attorney was getting sufficient fees.

Since the world began there were never two noses exactly alike, and there is as much difference in tastes as there is in noses. The successful clothesmaker must have his fingers on the pulse of popular taste. It is his business to discover in what direction the tide of popular preference is flowing. Then and then only can he hope to be in a position to offer something that is certain to attract all hands. Of course in making up your spring stock we could not have the pleasure of consulting you personally, but you will admit that we have been successful in anticipating your desire if you will call and look at our immense New Line of Tailor-made Spring and Summer Goods, which are beginning to arrive daily, including our Spring Overcoats, BUSINESS AND DRESS SUITS, Trousers, Boys' and Children's Suits, Pants and dusters, which are the acme of our tailors' skill and art. ## CHANGING THE CHARTER.

Amendment to Duluth's New Charter Goes Through
AND THE GOVERNOR WILL SIGN.

That Functionary Now Condescends
to Make the Charter Bill
a Law.

ST. PAUL, Feb. 27.—The busy bill was the special order in the senate today and is still unsettled. A good deal of fervid oratory, especially from the Democrats, has already been wasted over the bill and it looks as if a good deal more might be in the two houses before it becomes law.

An amendment to the Duluth city charter, drawn up by City Attorney Allen who came down for the purpose, was offered by Mr. Kendall in the house and was passed under suspension. It was finally given out that the governor would not sign the bill unless some change was made in the matter of the provisions regarding the water company and regulating its sale. Just what will be the result, Mr. Kendall, of the Superior Land and River Improvement company, has on the governor of the state of Minnesota is hard to tell, but the fact that the two worthies are engaged in business together may explain it.

However that may be it is stated that the governor will sign the Duluth city charter as amended this morning and the gas and water company may be said to have won a victory—but a truce from overwhelming defeat.

"To hang or not to hang" was the question which provoked a lively discussion before the house yesterday afternoon. The bill was introduced by Mr. Bjorge, and provided that "murder in the first degree is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for the offender's natural life."

The house considered this bill in committee of the whole and Mr. Kinney, of St. Louis county, occupied the chair. Mr. Bjorge offered a motion to pass the bill, when Mr. Peig wanted to indefinitely postpone. Mr. Kinney introduced his remarks by saying: "A man who moves to indefinitely postpone this bill ought to have all future prospects of his eternal salvation forfeited."

Mr. Kinney wished to express his sentiments, and considered "hanging" a relic of barbarism. Mr. Knudson said this bill was in direct contravention to the constitution. Mr. Bjorge entered a strong argument in favor of the bill. The motion that the committee should rise interrupted further discussion.

Mr. Stockwell's anti-Pinkerton bill providing that no employee be required to sign any agreement with the employer as a condition of employment, was introduced by a man and citizen, caused a lively debate in the house. Numerous amendments were fruitfully attempted, but the bill as it stood was recommended to pass.

The question of the West Duluth city charter was resumed about 3 p. m. and a lively time was experienced in the discussion. Represented Boyd opened the discussion, followed by Mr. Kinney and Mr. Kendall, who made speeches in Duluth, annexation, and against the charter. Mr. Boyd again took the floor and seemed to talk against time. He claimed he had been laboring to win the case and secure the charter and was sure of a large number of votes for his bill. He accused the committee of tampering with the bill and even Governor Merriam, which he did not deny. At 7 o'clock the bill had developed and a motion that the committee rise was adopted and the question left unsettled and undecided.

Some are under the impression there is such a space between Duluth and West Duluth that a charter would be the proper thing for them to have and thus encourage the rivalry.

Will be Tried at Fargo.

FARGO, N. D., Feb. 27.—Sheriff McLaren has left for La Crosse to receive Joseph Pennington, the murderer of J. T. Flett, of Arthur. The trial will be held here. Request papers have been asked for by Governor Peck and they will probably be found at La Crosse when Sheriff McLaren arrives.

Non-Union Men Shot.

BRADDOCK, Pa., Feb. 27.—Yesterday afternoon a number of strikers passed the Bradnock wire works and engaged in conversation with the non-union employees. According to the strikers, they asked the non-union men what kind of a day's work they were turning out. The answer was a volley from the workmen's revolvers. John Holiday and John Trainer, two of the strikers, fell. The wire mill men assert that the strikers here with mob intentions. George Holiday is in a dying condition. Trainer was slightly wounded. Three non-union men have been arrested.

Ex-County Clerk Hired.

ASHLAND, Wis., Feb. 27.—Ex-county clerk Hart has been hired to the county amount of the deficiency said to have been existing under his management. At a meeting of the county commissioners yesterday a resolution was adopted unanimously. His attorney, Mr. E. F. Glason, appeared before the board and stated that Hart had been refused to pay the amount of his acknowledged indebtedness in view of several matters relating to the financial condition of Ashland county.

Local Robbers Arrested.

COLLINGSVILLE, Ill., Feb. 27.—Six burglars have been arrested here while in the act of robbing a store. They were farmers, named Redmond, and the rights heretofore borne good reputations, and three others named Al Leslie, John Walden and Ed Nelson. The robber leader is said to be William Kincaid, of Caseyville, Ill., who is not yet arrested. Two other citizens of Collingsville are being shadowed by detectives.

The Corners' Verdict.

COLUMBIANA, O., Feb. 27.—Last night Coroner Egan returned his verdict in the inquest on the two men shot by the Elkhorn on Monday. The killing of W. L. Hughes by W. J. Elliot was found to have been accidental or unintentional; that the shots were intended to kill Albert Osborne and that Albert Osborne was shot by Paul M. Elliot. The Elkhorn will undoubtedly hang.

Washington Hitherto.

OLYMPIA, Wash., Feb. 27.—The house has decided in the Metcalfe-Clarke bribery case that it has no jurisdiction. The grand jury was requested by a committee to investigate, but it is probable the entire matter will be dropped.

LOSS BY FLOODS.

Southern California suffering severely because of late heavy rains.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Feb. 27.—Several ditches have already resulted from the severe flood here. Wm. E. Scribner, a druggist, was swept away in his store, while in Tijuana there is not a building left standing. The main current of the San Diego river now runs through the middle of the town. The valley is completely swept of fencing, windmills, etc. Numbers of cattle and horses are known to have perished. It is impossible to tell the damage or the number of lives lost.

A message from Des Moines states that thirty-three inches of rain had fallen within sixty hours at Stonewall and at the Cuyamaca dam. It is the heaviest highest ever known. A terrible landslide, and there are fears that the dams in the mountains may not be able to stand the pressure.

IN ARIZONA.

The Colorado and Gila Rivers flowing together higher than ever before.

TUCSON, Ariz., Feb. 27.—The water is running over the dams and is still rising. The people have abandoned all of their houses and gone to the hills for their own safety. The water in the Colorado is up thirty-seven feet, eight feet higher than the flood mark of 1881, and the highest ever known. The Colorado and Gila are both raging torrents, bringing down portions of houses, trees and dead animals. The Colorado has reached the 500-foot railroad bridge across the Colorado river and it is expected the bridge will go down.

Trains Abandoned in York State.

ALBANY, Feb. 27.—The condition of the New York Central railway, owing to the flood hereabouts, has not improved. Trains in each direction have been abandoned.

EDUCATIONAL GATHERING.

School Superintendents from all over the State in Convention.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 27.—The annual meeting of the school superintendents of the United States is in progress in this city, and some of the most well known and popular educators of the country are present. Among the most important subjects under discussion are those of university extension, compulsory education, the legitimate scope of the public schools and the training of common school teachers.

Judge Draper, state superintendent of public instruction of New York, will preside. His zeal and efficiency in the cause of popular education are well known. George Wm. Curtis, the champion of the New York university, has rendered it good and faithful services for over a quarter of a century, will deliver an address. Dr. Harris, the accomplished national commissioner of education, is to speak on "The National Educational Association, Its Organization and Its Future." Papers to be followed by debate are to be submitted on "The Relations of Universities and Schools," "The Compulsory School Legislation of Illinois," "The Question of the City and Supply of Teachers for City Public Schools," "Art Education as Related to Public School Education."

THE BIG WILL CASE.

Important Concession in the Fayerweather Case at New York.

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—There was a sensation in the content of the will of Lester Merchant Fayerweather, who left a big fortune to various colleges. Henry D. Vaughan said that he, Thos. G. Ritch and Justice Bullley had joined in an instrument relinquishing any claim to the residuary estate. As it was considered to be worth from $1,000,000 to $1,500,000 to each of them, the importance of the action appeared. It is supposed that the main purpose of the conveyance is to make the residuary estate of the testator the main purpose of the conveyance. The residuary legatees divested themselves of the residuary estate in favor of the testator's estate. This residuary estate is estimated to amount to $1,000,000. Many of the colleges named in the will secure large accessions to their original bequests and new institutions have been founded.

Today's developments will result in $100,000 going to the Northwestern university at Evanston, Ill. $25,000 to the Shattuck school at Fairbault, Minn., $50,000 additional to Lafayette college at Easton, Pa., and $50,000 additional to Washington college.

RAILROAD BUILDING.

State of Montana Takes the Lead in Construction.

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—The Engineering News this week will publish statistics showing the prospective railway construction of the United States in 1891. There are now 1814 miles of railway projected which have some prospect of being completed before the end of the year. In the western section of country the chief centers of activity are in Montana and Washington. The state of Montana takes the lead with 1478 miles. Montana has 600 miles.

The Balance Against Canada.

The imports increased last year by $7,500,000 and the exports about the same. The balance of the trade against Canada was $31,089,000. Canada's exports to the United States were $10,000,000, while her imports were $32,000,000.

A Tobacco Trust Materializes.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Feb. 27.—The National Tobacco works here, belonging to Pinget Doerhoefer & Co., and incorporated at $400,000 have been sold to a cigarette syndicate in which Kinney Bros. and Allen & Ginter are the leaders. It is believed to be the beginning of a great combination of the tobacco manufacturing interests of this part, if not all, of the country.

NEWS OF THE CAPITAL.

How the Cost of Naval Vessels
Has Been Growing.

SUFFRAGISTS STILL IN SESSION.

News of Senate and House Today;
Some Fine Washington
Topics.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—Only one new warship is provided for in the appropriation bill which has just been agreed upon. Yet this is no sign of waning interest in the navy on the part of congress, since this one vessel is not more than the entire fleet of Roach cruisers with which the modern establishment was started a few years ago.

The cost of the Chicago, the Boston, the Atlanta and the Dolphin was $2,400,000. The new vessel, which is unnamed, has its limits of cost fixed at $2,750,000, and true it is in construction at a contract price of $2,750,000. This cruiser No. 13 will probably cost about much as the four vessels just announced with the Dolphin added. Their aggregate displacements are upwards of 13,000 tons, while the new vessel will be nearly 20,000 tons. The vessel recently begun at the power of the new vessel exceeds by many thousands the combined power of the fleet. And with a speed of twenty-two knots she has other qualities such as mark a very great advance and are proportionally expensive.

The Indiana, Oregon and Massachusetts will cost $9,420,000; the New York and Cruisers 12 and 13 about $8,450,000, so that these six vessels will cost for hulls and machinery an aggregate of about $17,900,000, and the preliminary cost of the batteries above $18,000,000, exclusive of batteries. When the construction of the new navy was begun, the largest vessel proposed cost less than $300,000.

NATIONAL SUFFRAGISTS.

They Invade the Capitol and are Doing Hard Work.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—Not a little interest attaches to the national convention of the Woman's Suffrage association now in session here. The advocates of this movement are everywhere present and they swarm the Capitol and interview the lawmakers in a way that is at once suggestive for the looker-on. Senator Carey, of Wyoming, is a center of attraction, and the popularity of the suffragists of his state, in view of their repeated success in battling all efforts to repeal the measure, is at once recognized.

When interviewed Senator Carey said that they had had woman suffrage there for twenty years. None of the objections made to this extension of suffrage had been found in actual practice to have a good basis. The result there had been more than satisfactory. It was not true that women in general took no interest in the question of suffrage. There was fully as large a proportion of women who voted in his state today as of men. The women gave more thought to the subject than the men and were more conscientious in the exercise of their right. Their influence in politics was of a more permanent character as it made men more circumspect in the transaction of the duties of public office. ## TUBERCULUS DUTIABLE.

Individuals Must Pay, but Corporations May Get It Free.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—It has been officially decided at the post office department that Koch's lymph cannot be imported into this country through the mails. It was not true that women in general took no interest in the question of suffrage. There was fully as large a proportion of women who voted in his state today as of men. ## EMMA ABBOTT'S WISHES.

Execution of Her Request Will Be With the Executors.

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—The executors of the estate of the late Emma Abbott decide to make any statement for the press regarding whether it is proposed to carry out the injunctions of the will that the remains be tested by electricity and then reduced to ashes in a crematory. The family and personal friends of the late prima donna are, on sensitive grounds, very much opposed to the injunctions being carried into effect. At the same time they feel that it is hardly proper to disregard the wishes of the dead, and accordingly they have left the matter to the executors, giving the latter full authority to do what they may think best, and when they think proper. The probabilities are that the cremation will take place within a few weeks.

EMPEROR FREDERICK.

She Has to Change Her Route for Fear of French Insects.

PARIS, Feb. 27.—The Emperor Frederick of Germany, left Paris this morning. No unpleasant incident marked her departure. The gravity and strained condition of the present situation, however, can be judged from the fact that, acting under advice from the French police headquarters, the emperor changed the line of her route for fear of being insulted by that portion of the populace which is generally inclined to itself into a fever heat of rage over the presence of an imperial visitor from Germany in the city of Paris, or even in France.

THE BURLINGTON.

It Will Build Into Montana to Tap the Great Northern.

TACOMA, Wash., Feb. 27.—The Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad is pushing for the Western coast at a lively pace. Construction is now going forward in Wyoming. The road will cross the Northern Pacific, probably west of Billings, and then strike for Great Falls to connect with the Great Northern. It will tap the Western business of the Great Northern for the Chicago trade.

Gen. Sibley's Will.

ST. PAUL, Feb. 27.—The will of the late Gen. Sibley is filed here. Most of the property is given his four children, while bequests are made to relatives and to several charitable organizations of St. Paul. His estate is valued at $232,000, about equally divided between real and personal property.

EVIDENTLY AN INFIDEL.

Papers of the Late Charles Bradlaugh as to His Belief.

LONDON, Feb. 27.—The reports that have been in circulation that in the early stages of what proved to be his last illness, the late Charles Bradlaugh recanted the doctrine of infidelity which he had so persistently championed throughout his life, received a final quietus by the discovery among his private papers of a statement written after he had been confined to his bed and headed, "My Heresy, Its Justification."

In the course of the paper the writer says that the believers had sometimes been merciless to their dead and he had sometimes been merciful to their living. Weapon which petty persecution could call to its aid. Yet he had not been broken or swept away, but, knowing as he did, the difficulties that the avowal of heresy still made in his path, he reiterated that avowal. He probably had as wide and large a political ambition as any living man and he believed that so far as his poor efforts went, he could at least be of some service to his fellow; but he did not disguise the fact that the heretic had but small opportunities in view of the vast amount of prejudices that existed. He owed it, however, to those who had been associated with him and had been devoted to him for more than a quarter of a century—some of them having stood shoulder to shoulder with him for nearly forty years—that having at least once leaned over the edge of the grave, although he had not fallen into the blackness of death, he made no wavering and that he justified his heresy as he wrote.

In addition to this, Mrs. Bradlaugh Bonner, daughter of the deceased, says she had taken the precaution to procure signed testimonies from the independent impartial witnesses in attendance upon her father during the four weeks prior to his death, that he was not heard to utter one word either directly or indirectly bearing upon religion or any religious subject.

COMING FOR MONEY.

American an Inexhaustible Mine for the Irish Cause.

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—The announcement from London that Matthew J. Conny and James Christopher Flynn, two members of the McCarthy wing of the Irish party, will sail for this country in a few days for the purpose of opening a campaign in favor of McCarthy's leadership against Parnell, and that they expect to return to Ireland with $100,000, is variously commented upon in Irish circles in this city. These men, however, to be a consensus of opinion that the proposed visit is ill timed, that it may arouse anew the bitter feelings which prevailed among the Irish party in many large cities prior to the departure of Parnell and O'Brien, and that the prospect of the delegates being successful in the matter of securing contributions are very problematical.

Whether or not the delegates will be successful in securing their arrival will be decided at a meeting to be held in a few days. The Parnell wing vehemently oppose any such recognition being extended to the men whom they regard as traitors to the ex-chieftain, while the followers of McCarthy seem to be in a decided minority, especially among the monied supporters of Irish liberty.

TO EVANGELIZE THE WORLD.

The Student Volunteers For Foreign Missionary Work in Convention.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Feb. 27.—The first international convention of the student volunteer movement for foreign missions is being held. Five hundred delegates from all parts of the world are present. Over 5000 students have signed a desire to become foreign missionaries. The day role of the convention and work of the evangelization of the world in this generation.

New Mexico's New Laws.

SANTA FE, Feb. 27.—The legislature adjourned at midnight last night sine die. Some of the bills passed during the session are important and the leading ones are as follows: a free public school law; a bill taxing express companies on a basis of their receipts; a bill taxing national bank shares; Regulating express charges; creating a board of penitentiary commissioners of seven members; repealing exemption laws and creating two additional district attorneys.

Boomers Silenced.

Suffering Great Among the Boomers in the Cherokee Strip.

KANSAS CITY, Feb. 27.—There is great suffering in the Cherokee strip among the boomers who went there from Kansas and Missouri several weeks ago. The late fearful blizzard caught them almost entirely unprepared. They had no time to get coal or wood and their only fuel is buffalo chips, while the heavy fall of snow has spoiled even them for use. There are 800 boomers, including their families, in the strip and half of this number are in danger.

Cash Wheat and Future on the Duluth Market.

MONEY MARKETS IN THE EAST.

Leading Speculative Commodities in All the Leading Markets of the World.

The market opened today at an advance over yesterday's close of 1/4c for cash and May No. 1 hard and 3/8c advance for May No. 1 northern. The market ruled strong on bullish news. Foreign markets were strong. Here, as at all American points, it was not active, but held firm. It looked as if wheat had been bought heavily and the crowd was waiting. Reports from France still come bad on wheat and the sentiment is bullish. Liverpool shows wheat 1/4c higher. The weather in the West is still cold and the wave has extended further East. The entire winter wheat belt from Kansas to Pennsylvania and as far South as Tennessee is subjected to severe freezing weather. It was stated that orders were received here today for export wheat, but prices ruled so high that none could be worked.

May 1 hard ruled dull but steady, starting out with a sale at 90 1/2c. At noon it broke to 90 3/4c, selling in large lots. It closed at 90 3/4c. May 1 northern sold at 90 1/4c, advanced 1/4c, but closed at 90 1/2c. Cash in store ruled dull, selling at 94 1/2c and 95 1/4c for the upper and lower grades. The close for the three grades was 94 1/2c, 94 1/4c and 94 1/2c. Track wheat sold at 88 1/2c for 1 hard and at 91 1/2c for 1 northern.

The closing prices today were as follows:

Chicago Cattle.

CHICAGO, Feb. 27.—The market was again subjected to crop-killing and export news. The numerous messages received the past few days regarding these two bull points have been enormous. While there may be truth in them it is too early to figure on such enormous damage as they have reported. A big export was reported from St. Louis, but when the truth came out it was found to be a purchase of 100,000 for April shipment. Cattle were higher and the scalpers who had gone home short last night were free buyers this morning. Corn was easier on cold weather, although receipts are light.

Jarbeau Tonight.

Miss Vernona Jarbeau, the pretty favorite of the opera comique school, will bring her own company to the Temple opera house tonight. The musical comedy "Starlight," was expressly written for Miss Jarbeau's debut.

The plot describes the search for a prima donna made by a musical "crank" anxious to become an operatic manager. He discovers a shepherdess with a voice, brings the rustic singer to America, and she makes her appearance at a fashionable reception, where the various guests assist her in a rehearsal. The charm of "Starlight" is the very of pretty girls who are to be seen in it. Miss Jarbeau has a fascination both of voice and gesture, and she is said to have been remarkably successful in surrounding herself with women who are comely and charming in every sense.

How to Dress in March.

There is a curious prejudice among many against the overcoat, and yet the discarded rubber is an essential protection against the melting snow and slush of March. The thickest soles of the heaviest walking boots absorb enough moisture to dampen and chill the feet, and yet nothing is more perilous than sitting in a warm room with rubbers on, excepting going about the ordinary house in slippers. Drapings hug the floor and lie in wait for the unwary. The clinging of wet skirts against the ankles is a fruitful source of aches and pains. Leggings of leather water-proof or rubber will obviate this trouble in a degree, while a skirt of flannel faced with a rubber band, avoids the danger altogether.

While the feet are kept warm, the head should be kept cool. The hardest nations in the world are those which cover the throat and head lightly. Remember the fur hat and muller for the sleigh ride, and banish them from the promenade. Catarrh and throat troubles are often caused by the introduction of foreign particles into the nasal passages, so wear a thick veil as a safeguard against the dust which March winds beat on their wings; and, lastly, avoid injudicious dress for social events. Evening costumes for men and women are much thinner than those habitually worn during the day, and care should be taken to increase correspondingly the outer and undergarments. It is a trifle presumptuous to discard flannels, and then after hours, in a hot ball-room, to put on a creation of lace and ribbon for a drive or a walk in the night air of March.

Dressmakers of the Future.

Dressmaking is a noble art, says Mrs. Anne Jensen Miller in the Ladies Home Journal. In the purity of its ideas it is a type of the highest culture. Ladies should go into it, for it requires the aesthetic instinct and the educated taste, and these belong only to the higher and more refined temperament. The most beautiful dress we have ever had has been the Greek dress, and in some periods, the Roman; that is, according to real art. But such dress is not available for our climate, with its abrupt transitions from heat to cold, nor for our business vocations and conventional usages. The artist or dressmaker of the future must study the laws governing dress as it was in those days, and at the same time take into consideration adaptations to climatic and social conditions.

Woman, particularly when she is beautiful, is the most attractive being in the world, and more pains should be taken to drape and dress her than with almost any other branch of art. I do not think that dressmaking has ever revealed the aesthetic beauty that is possible. We have had style and fashion, but we have never had what I regard as the highest forms of art in dress, and we never have had until such a time as is regarded as a fine art, instead of now as a trade, and until the time shall come when women or men, who are dressmakers, shall be treated with the same consideration, socially or otherwise, as we today treat a painter or a sculptor.

How a Princess Dresses.

The Ladies Home Journal: Though the princess of Wales is very simple in her attire at her home and when in the country, she yet thoroughly understands the art of magnificent dressing when it is required. She has taught women all over the world the beauty of simplicity, and the assumption of cottons has become more and more general every year because she approves of them. Very fond of both walking and driving, it is not marvelous that the princess has retained her beautiful complexion, and that with her artistic knowledge, she is counted the best-dressed woman in England. Simplicity is the key note to her attire, and it is by her influence that the well-made cloth gown and the small hat have retained their hold so long in the fashionable world. When she goes yachting, a simple blue serge gown, trimmed with white braid, and a cap on which the name of the royal yacht is painted, is the costume favored by her and her daughters, and the one that permits them to have a thoroughly good time and enjoy the sea and the air as they wish to do.

BUSINESS SITUATION.

The reviews of trade are a trifle more conservative than even, though business men generally regard the sky as clearer. Dun's review of this week states that there is not much change in the condition of trade but a little more dullness in the South and Northwest, with a little more stringency in the money market and complaints about the slowness of collections. In general business is still hesitating. The main cause is undoubtedly the partial loss of crops, which has left a great many farmers without means for the usual purchases. At the same time the collapse of the real estate boom has affected business more than has yet been realized. To this influence is added at the South the extremely low values of cotton. Money markets, though still generally calm, give signs of approach to stringency.

Besides failures during the last seven days, number 200, as against 207 last week, for the corresponding week of last year, the figures were 301.

Locally business is fair, collections are better than a month ago and the feeling is decidedly improved. Bank clearings for the week have been a trifle less than for the corresponding week last year, due no doubt, to the cessation to a large extent of the real estate movement. Prices are generally firm and a good summer is expected.

AN INJURIOUS MEASURE.

Senator Donnelly's bill, senate file No. 55, providing for the taxation of mortgages, is arousing a great deal of attention among Duluthians, and deserves even more. It provides that before a mortgage can be put on record it must have a certificate from the assessor or other proper officer, that it is listed for taxation. Judge Stearns stated today that if this measure passed it would be of incalculable injury to Minnesota, and especially to Duluth, for the reason that outside capitalists would no longer invest in the state and pay heavy taxes on their investments when they could go over into Wisconsin and other states and get mortgages without the payment.

Perhaps the time may come, when by a combination of like laws in many states, or when Minnesota becomes rich enough to ask no loans from outside her borders, and her own people will supply the wants of their fellows, that such a measure may possibly be excused. Until that time the business interests of the state can afford no law to frighten capital from our lands. As the Herald said the other day it is well, under the circumstances, that we have a banker governor who is not a fool or a demagogue on financial subjects.

THE SITUATION OF MANUFACTURING.

The recent statement of Edward Atkinson that "if one could stand on the highest peak of the Great Smoky mountain in the heart of the Southern Appalachian chain, if he could bring within his vision all that would come within a radius of 75 to 100 miles, the center of iron and steel product might be established," has already been referred to and commented on in this paper. Mr. Atkinson's belief would wipe from the chess board of progress the bountifully supplied regions of the North and Northwest, where there is not only iron, but people who will use it and can pay for what they use. The view he takes is superficial.

John Birkinbine, of Philadelphia, in an article in The Herald today refers to Mr. Atkinson's prophecy and gives his reasons for a general denial. That manufacturers will follow population, at least so far as is allowed by the presence of the raw materials of manufacture, and that the seat of population and wealth is not moving toward the South, or states east of the Mississippi, but to the West and North, is plain. The Northwest, quite possibly the region about Lake Superior, will become the great center of American manufacture. The Herald doubts not at all.

FREE TRADE IN ENGLAND.

There is little doubt that the McKinley tariff law has had much to do with the trade and tariff agitation which now prevails in England. This agitation is naturally increased by Canada's independent course. A proposition is now made for an imperial Zollverein, to embrace all the English colonies in a commercial union, and both in and out of parliament this proposition is making great headway.

But the adoption of such a policy carries with it the principle of tariff discrimination, or in other words means the abandonment by England of her boasted policy of free trade to all comers. The proposition, however, is more popular in England than in the colonies. Canada is opposed to it with indifference; but the significant thing is that England recognizes that her present policy must be in some respects modified.

A New York physician publishes some very sensible sanitary advice for the approaching spring season. He asserts that it is not necessarily a season dangerous to health, but rather the contrary, with proper precautions. The danger is that we are soon to be tempted with now and then a seductive day, the mildness of which will tempt a man to go out without his overcoat, in order to be able to get around better. The body having long accommodated itself to its heavier clothing, a severe cold is likely to be the result, at a season when it is least able to withstand it. It is better to suffer a little discomfort on an exceptionally mild day than to disturb conditions to which the system has become accustomed.

Personal taxes are being rapidly paid today and the county treasurer will have a nearly clean lot of state of receipts. It is somewhat noticeable that it has not been found necessary to extend the period of payment of taxes in Duluth by four weeks—as was done at Superior—or by one week or one day. It is also a notable fact that there is nearly as great a proportion of the total taxes of Duluth already paid, though the bulk of them do not fall due till May 31, as of Superior when they all became delinquent three weeks ago and the time was extended by favor of the powers that be. Duluth is all right.

French politeness is only skin deep. Those are patriotic and polite Frenchmen who made the visit of an excellent woman, the mother of the German emperor, one of such danger to her that she was forced to go home the back way. Everyday French politeness consists of insult to woman and compromising compliment, there is nothing manly or honest about it.

Miss Frances E. Willard proposes to "lift woman from mere sexhood up towards glorious womanhood." Unfortunately the English language has no available word which quite eliminates the sex idea, except "humanity," and even that, Mrs. Partington used to say, "has got a darned 'man' in it."

SEEN AND HEARD.

I have been asked, perhaps a dozen times in the past two days, if the extracts given Wednesday in The Herald from a South Florida newspaper were bona fide, and if they were whether they were written in seriousness or in joke? I must disclaim for myself any change, either in word or letter, from the original, which were indeed written without the slightest idea of fun. The extracts I gave were merely a few culled from a couple of copies of the paper sent me by a friend, who, by the way, promises some more at no distant day. But if anyone is amused at the phraseology he should take a glance at the paper itself, which could hardly be reproduced this side the Atlantic Islands or the Congo.

Women are smarter than the men in one thing, at least. Watch them in the horse cars and the trains. They never stir from their seats until the vehicles come to a stop. The men leap to their feet and stand hanging to straps and hustled about by one another, and then elbow their way out the doorway, while the women sit serenely, rise serenely and, as serenely, pass out unhindered to the street or the depot.

"On the end of many a bar, in many a room in New York," says a friend who has just returned from that wicked city, "is a collection box bearing the words: 'Association for Reforming Young Children,' and setting forth the objects of the association to be the protection of children from evil influences and the rescue of young girls who desire to return to the path of virtue. It was a long-headed philanthropist who put those boxes in the bars. I believe that at no other rendezvous of men is sentiment so often aroused or moral indignation so vigorously championed. Part of the truth that wine is said to bring out is the truth that makes the softer side of men, and many a man who pretends to scoff at virtue drops a nickel in those boxes when the wine is in him."

Harriet Beecher Stowe's name that was coupled with her novels and stories a decade ago is presented again coupled with oranges. "From Harriet Beecher Stowe," "Orange Grove," was a legend one sees occasionally. I remember when on a visit to Florida and the St. Johns river some years ago, to have seen Mrs. Stowe's place on the water side above Jacksonville, and to have regarded it with a sort of veneration. Mrs. Stowe's son, the Rev. Charles E. Stowe, went to Florida and spent three or four months a year ago in restoring order on the plantation and fruitfulness to the orange grove which had gone to ruin. Mrs. Stowe's cottage, in which she enjoyed life many years, was torn down, and nothing remains but the grove.

That's What.

Daily News: The Evening Herald says the telephone service has improved of late. Yes; it has improved so that for a week past it has been impossible to obtain service at all after 12 o'clock at night. Perhaps The Herald goes on the theory that no service at all is an improvement over the former poor service, and the News is not prepared to say that it is altogether wrong.

Tariff Pictures.

New York Press: "With a Chinese tariff wall," say the free traders, "we keep out the goods of other countries until our selfish foreign friends positively refuse to help us make the World's fair a success." And yet the increase of imports in 1890 over those of five years' average (1885-89) was $126,136,000. Imports, average 1885 to 1890.

Social Notes.

The Ladies' Literary class meets Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. A. B. Chapin. The subject is Goethe and his works.

The Ladies Aid society of Endicott baptist church will give a "New England" supper at the church on Wednesday evening next.

The young people of Onesto turned out en masse for a sleigh ride to Lester Park last night. They reported a good time, with only one attempt on the part of the driver to tip them out.

The "fish supper" given last night at the unitarian church was very pleasant. The blue points were from Boston and the white fish from Winnipeg. A monster trout, presented by Mr. Emerson, and cooked and garnished in exquisite style, was a feature of the spread.

The Thursday evening progressive euchre club met this week at the residence of C. A. Gregory on Twenty-first avenue west. The first prize was won by Mrs. Wright and the booby prize by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Frank Wright.

After refreshments, Mrs. Gregory and Mr. Pilkey, of the Duluth Music company, entertained the party.

Before a pleased audience yesterday Mr. Lachmund gave his third musical lecture at his studio. It was particularly interesting on account of a talk on "Scharwenka" and several original and strange Chinese pieces were played.

Misses Emma Johnson, Dolly Nichols, Hattie Carey and Ada Mallory, of Mr. Lachmund's piano class, contributed numbers.

Midst the tooting of tozhorns, bugle calls and college songs, a merry party crossed the bay last evening; after a pleasant hour at the Grand Hotel, they all returned to Miss Toland's, on East Third street, where an elegant lunch was served. Among the party were: Mr. and Mrs. A. Crossley, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. McCaughy, Mrs. S. J. Brice, Mrs. W. S. Woodbridge, Miss Scott, Miss Brice, Miss DeLoach, Miss Woodbridge, Miss Wells, the Misses Noble, N. J. Upham, Frank M. Zeller, O. Brice, H. Earhart, Harry Burkholder, T. F. Upham and Dr. Woodbury.

The Martha Washington entertainments given at the First Methodist church last evening were most successful. The church was filled and the program comprised some very excellent given vocal and instrumental pieces. The ten served was not the least attractive part of the evening's proceedings. George Woodbridge, the soloist, together with several prominent young ladies and gentlemen, who made a very pretty picture, sang "The Rose Tree." Introduction of George and Lady Washington, also cabinet and ladies in costume; solo, "The King's Champion," (Michael Watson), F. E. Burdett, "My Boat is Waiting Here for Thee," Miss Lucille Wiggins, Miss Lue Grainger, "The Water Side above Jacksonville," and "The Water Side above Jacksonville," Miss Wiggins, Messrs. McMillen and Burdett; solo, "Where George III Was King," Mr. Charles McMillen.

MONEY MARKETS IN THE EAST.

Leading Speculative Commodities in
All the Leading Markets of the World.

The market today ruled fluctuating on the futures. The first sale in May No. 1 northern was made at an advance of 1/4c over yesterday's close. May No. 1 hard sold first at a decline of 3/4c and cash in store at an unchanged price from yesterday. Reports showed a considerable falling off in exports. Wheat and flour exported 1,084,000 against 2,087,000 last week. New York was nervous with the crowd changing front often. Chicago also reported a very nervous wheat market. A Bordeaux cable received here states that the French crop is very seriously damaged. Cable reports received at Chicago were of a mixed nature, strong and weak. The increase in wheat stocks at Duluth for the week will amount to between 80,000 and 90,000 bu. Last year for the same week the increase of wheat stocks was 85,000 bu. The market here ruled nervous and fluctuating in the May option with a good demand for spot wheat for export. The close was strong at 1/4c off from yesterday's close for cash in store February 1 hard and May 1 hard and unchanged for February 1 northern and 1/4c off for May 1 northern. As compared with last Saturday there was an advance of from 1/4c to 3/4c all around. May No. 1 northern sold early at 95 1/2c and ran down selling at 95 1/4c and advanced to 96c selling in 10,000 bu lots. The close was at the same figure with bids. May No. 1 hard sold late at 95 1/2c and advanced to 96 1/2c selling and declined in the last half hour to 95 1/4c closing at that figure bid. Cash wheat in store No. 1 hard sold at 94 1/4c. No. 1 northern winter receipts sold at 91c. A large amount of No. 1 hard wheat sold free on board at 90c.

CIVIL LIBERTY.

A Lecture at the Christian Church on the "Dangers to Government."

The lecture given by Rev. E. M. Noyes at the Christian church last evening on "The Rise and Fall of Civil Liberty," was well attended. The lecturer's views were mainly based on Mill and the rulings of the supreme court since Mill wrote.

He said that as Mill contended it was an abridgment of the liberties of the citizen to suppress entirely the liquor traffic and the saloons and religious freedom, the supreme court held that the suppression of the saloon and the liquor traffic, the exclusion of Chinese, the abolition of the Mormons and other religious sects who countenanced immoral practices, could all be brought about without trespassing on constitutional liberty.

He also spoke of the pursuit of happiness, which he said should and could be achieved without encroaching on others. Speaking of the dangers of civil liberty, he said: "Independence of all foreign power, whether religious or political, was the essential of true civil liberty, without which it was impossible for liberty to exist. The Roman church might be a danger to liberty, and the ignorant and half formed theories of ignorant people on government and political economy was another element of danger; also the appealing to the passions and prejudices of man. The greatest safeguard of civil liberty is a high intellectual and moral training of the people."

Charles Keane, of London Punch.

(From the Illustrated American.)

He had an odd, quick, sketchy style, full of vigor, and wholly peculiar. He was unsurpassable in sketches of servant girls, policemen, city men, diners-out, waiters, cabmen, lodging-house keepers, henpecked husbands.

He loved little jokes about the clergy. "Good morning, Mrs. Smithers," says the rector, in one of his sketches. "How's the baby? Isn't it rather early to bring him to church? Don't you think he'll be restless?"

And Mrs. Smithers replies: "Oh no, sir; he'll be quiet, sir. We took him to the Methodist chapel last Sunday o' purpose to try him, sir."

Here, again, is a parson accosting a rustic. "I have missed you from your pew of late, Mr. Stubbings."

"Well, sir," replies the farmer, "I hev been to meetic' lately. But y' see the Rev. Mr. Scowles o' the chapel, he bought some pige o' me, and I thought I ought to give him a turn."

Cash Wheat and Future on the Duluth Market.

MONEY MARKETS IN THE EAST.

Leading Speculative Commodities in All the Leading Markets of the World.

The market ruled dull here today the first sales opening at a decline from Saturday's close in the May No. 1 hard future at 90c. May No. 1 hard recovered its loss in the forenoon while May No. 1 northern opened at Saturday's close and declined 1/4c up to noon but recovered in the afternoon. The visible report showed a decrease in wheat of 49,000 bu., an increase in corn of 23,000 bu. and an increase in oats of 35,000 bu. The decrease was considered a bullish feature because a small increase was expected. Foreign cables reported a firm but advancing market. A Liverpool cable stated that holders were firm and buyers are bidding full prices for spot and forward delivery. The market was greatly strengthened by anticipation of small receipts. New Orleans cleared 25,000 bu. and New York 48,000 bu. wheat and 20,000 packages flour. Cash wheat ruled very dull today, and there was a very little demand for wheat on track or for future delivery.

May 1 hard opened with a sale at 90c and advanced to 90 1/4c, selling in small lots in the last hour. It gained another 1/4c, closing at 90 3/4c. May No. 1 northern ruled the most active opening with a sale at 90c and falling off on successive sales to 89 1/2c and advanced in the afternoon to 90c, closing at that figure with bids. Cash wheat to arrive sold at 90 1/2c for No. 1 northern. There were no deals in March wheat.

The closing prices were as follows:

	Cash	Mar.	May

No. 1 northern	89 1/2	90 1/4	90 3/4

CLEWS' REVIEW.

Henry Clews on the Financial Situation at New York.

New York, March 2.—Henry Clews & Co.'s weekly review is as follows: The causes that have depressed the stock market for the last three weeks still continue in force. The disposition to defer speculation until after the adjournment of congress is general and the volume of transactions has fallen to about one-third the average amount. How far the inactivity is really due to postponement till the close of congress, and how far to other causes, must be left for events to determine; but it is quite possible that the recent ostensibly assigned for the deferment of transactions is made to do service for other influences. February is usually a dull month; and whatever improvement the adjournment of congress may bring is likely to be more or less counteracted by the hardening of the money market that usually occurs in March and culminates in the first week of April. While, therefore, the market is likely to exhibit more spirit after March 4, yet it is not unlikely that we may have to wait until the beginning of April for any really active and well-sustained movement in stocks, after which we may expect four or five months of uninterrupted ease in money.

The steadiness with which prices have been maintained during the period of excessive dullness is a symptom that deserves attention. It implies the comparative absence of weak spots in the market and the prevalence of a sense of decency which the "bears" find it prudent to respect. It evidences a sound state of affairs and the expectation of sooner or later a higher range of values. Undoubtedly, the fact that the January earnings show an average gain of 6 per cent over the largely increased receipts of January, 1900—especially as that was a much better result than had been expected—has largely contributed to this healthy tone of the market.

In my judgment, the unusually depressing influences affecting the market for the last five months have predisposed Wall street to very fully, perhaps excessively, discount the unfavorable factors in the railroad situation; whilst the more favorable factors seem not to have received the full consideration they merit. The railroad interest appears to have touched its lowest point of depression about the period of the late panic. Competition and granger legislation and agitation had then done their worst and the injury arising from the corn crop was as limited as it is maximum; and these factors were then taken at their full value when the panic level of prices was reached. Since that time, important changes beneficially affecting the railroads have occurred.

The currency movement at the banks results in a net cash about $2,750,000 for the week; the exchanges with the sub-treasury showing a loss of $3,200,000 and the interior movement a gain of $20,000. The sum of $24,000,000 of gold has been exported, but the present supply of sterling exchange is against the probability of shipments being continued.

A PECULIAR CASE.

And a Decision of Some Importance in Realty Interests.

Judge Stearns late Saturday decided a peculiar case. The suit brought involves a part of lots 9 and 10, block 43, Edison division. B. P. Smith and wife and John L. Brutell bought the land. Smith and wife sold half interest to F. R. Anson, subject to a mortgage for $2800. Davis, the mortgagee, assigned the mortgage to one W. A. Bartlett. Anson in turn makes a second mortgage to one Hammond, subject to one-half of the first mortgage. The sheriff then sold all the property under the first mortgage, and Brutell redeemed the whole property for $2314.20, and brings suit now to restrain the foreclosing of the second mortgage.

The judge decided that the defendants must pay one-half the amount of the first mortgage before they can get good title to the land.

NEWS AT WASHINGTON.

The President Puts His Signature to Many Bills.

NEWS IN SENATE AND HOUSE.

Renewed Talk of an Extra Session; Important Bills That are Passed.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The President has signed the direct tax bill refunding money to the states, the act to prevent bookmaking and pool selling in the District of Columbia, the act amending an act for the relief of volunteers and regular soldiers of the late war approved March 2, 1889; the act granting a pension to the widow of the Gen. William H. Hoffman; the act for printing 10,000 additional copies of the work known as the "Growth of Industrial Art"; the act to establish circuit courts of appeal and to define and regulate the jurisdiction of the courts of the United States.

The senate this morning took up the general deficiency appropriation bill and all the amendments that had been agreed to in committee of the whole last night were agreed to in bulk, including that regarding the French spoliation claims. For this purpose $1,000,000 is appropriated and for the payment of other judgments of the court of claims $841,135, or $888,820 more than the amount appropriated by the house. In the latter appropriation is included a new item of $805,207 to pay the Central Pacific.

Senator Plumb offered an amendment appropriating $50,000 for the relief of the citizens of Oklahoma, rendered destitute by the unexampled drought of the past season; agreed to. The senate adopted its conference report on the diplomatic appropriation bill, including the provision for the Hawaiian cable, which provides for an amendment reducing the amount to be appropriated for the cable to not more than $150,000 a year for fifteen years and requires that an amount equal to one-third of the amount appropriated by the United States shall be furnished, in addition, by Hawaii.

RAILROAD CONVENTION.

State Railroad Commissioners Will Consider Matters of Much Importance.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—A national convention of state railroad commissioners opened here today at the office of the interstate commerce commission, in response to a call issued by the latter body. The railroad commissioners of nearly every state and also many state officers charged with duties relating to the supervision of railway interests are present together with delegates of the American Association of Accounting Officers. Subjects to be discussed by the association are: "Uniformity in Railroad Accounting," and what further steps are important to that end; "Territorial Assignments of State Railroads," of which this is the first practical step, and what principles should control any grouping of railway statistics; "Apportionment of Expenses to Freight and Passenger Service," what reasons there are for making such an apportionment, and what rules should be adopted; "Safety Appliances for Railroad Cars," what legislation should be had by Congress; "Reasonable Rates," what they are and the elements to be considered in the determination of them. It is thought that the views expressed during the conference will have an important bearing on the future action and policy of the interstate commerce commission.

AN EXTRA SESSION.

Claimed That Reciprocity Treaties Will Constitute the President's Game. WASHINGTON, March 3.—It is learned from reliable sources that President Harrison will call an extra session of the senate. If such a move should be made the session will not last over three weeks. The move is said to be in the hands of Secretary Blaine. If he gives the word an extra session will be called. It is learned that Mr. Blaine has several reciprocity treaties about concluded. Cuba is one of the countries that he is trying hard to complete negotiations at once.

A representative of the state department returned from Cuba yesterday, and it is supposed that he has important information for and that of J. D. Goetz, who is going to the island to be accompanied in the extra session is the ratification of the treaties with several South American republics that the secretary of state is negotiating with.

GENERAL LAND BILL.

It Repels the Timber Culture and Pre-emption Laws.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The general land bill passed the house yesterday afternoon. It includes the repeal of the timber culture and pre-emption claim laws and minor provisions of interest to the Northwest. It also reduces the price of land to settlers from $2.50 to $2.25 per acre in the Sisseton reservation, which will be opened to settlers early in the spring. Outside of the land that will be held by Indians, 70,000 acres will be thrown open so settlers.

Monetary Items.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—Five applications were yesterday filed with the controller for authority to organize new national banks. The Alamo National bank of San Antonio, Tex., capital $250,000, was authorized to begin business. The monthly report of the United States mints show that there were coined 106,470 gold pieces of the value of $4,414,400; 3,655,000 silver pieces of the value of $3,678,000, and 9,925,470 nickel and cent pieces of the value of $123,900.

Seed Wheat Appropriation.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—Senator Pettigrew of South Dakota, has worked through the $150,000 appropriation for the purchase of seed wheat for needy settlers in North and South Dakota, Nebraska and Kansas. It was attached to the agricultural appropriation bill which passed the senate yesterday.

Heavy New England Storm.

HARTFORD, Conn., March 3.—The heaviest storm of the season has prevailed since Sunday. Railways are blocked and telegraph wires are badly damaged. It is not very cold and as soon as the storm abates the blockade can probably be raised in a few hours.

FIRE BUG JAILED.

Brainerd's Many Mysterious Fires Now Accounted For; The Work of Moore.

DULUTH, March 3.—For weeks fires have been so alarmingly frequent as to cause great distress and loss. Insurance companies began to withdraw risks, and the authorities put their best efforts forward to find the authors of the mischief. The series of fires began at Gull river yesterday, where some of the Governor Pillsbury's mill property was destroyed and a residence owned by True S. Moore, once a highly respected citizen, was also burned. After this Moore was much in this city and fires became frequent here. Finally a watch was set on him and he was arrested on a slight charge. While confined the suspicious fires have ceased.

Yesterday afternoon Moore drove into town and the police set a watch. At 4 o'clock this morning an officer followed Moore to the rear of White's gun store and in an instant later a flash of flame told that the work was started. The officer arrested him at once and hustled him off to jail while the department was fighting the fire, which was quickly subdued, but with so much combustible material, including gun powder and dynamite in the stock of the store a horrible conflagration might easily have resulted.

It is claimed that suspicious circumstances connect Moore with nearly all the recent fires including the Commercial hotel, in which a whole block was destroyed, including the Catholic church and other valuable property. His reasons for setting the fires are not known.

IOWA ELECTIONS.

Democrats Generally in the Majority; Municipal Ticket Chosen.

CHICAGO, March 3.—Reports from Iowa municipal elections yesterday show that at Iowa City democrats made a clean sweep. The mayor had 300 majority. Fort Madison democrats were also successful.

At Ottumwa the democrats elected a mayor by a vote of 500 to 400. Two years ago, Hoot was working on a coalition ticket when he was elected mayor, largely through the votes of the Knights of Labor. The general ticket was elected democratic, except treasurer.

Cedar Falls elected a republican mayor and at Laport City, a straight republican ticket was elected. The democrats are in the lead largely through its stance on the liquor question.

DISQUALIFY DOCTORS.

Will Recognize no Foreign Licenses for Graduates of Medical Schools.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., March 3.—The action of the state board of health in deciding that hereafter it will recognize no foreign diploma unless such diploma confers the right to practice medicine in the state in which it was granted, will, it is said, have the effect of disqualifying from practice several hundred male and female doctors who are scattered over the country and who have received diplomas from foreign colleges since their arrival in this country. The rule especially applies to diplomas issued by colleges in Germany, Switzerland and Austria, the countries most largely represented by the foreign diploma holders.

It also applies to Canadian diplomas unless the owner is a licentiate of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario or Quebec. In the countries specifically designated American diplomas are generally recognized, and holders permitted to practice without being required to undergo a state examination into their qualifications, and it is regarded as not unlikely that holders of diplomas from other foreign countries may lead to a health against the American physicians in other countries.

BOTH ASSIGNMENTS LIFTED.

John C. Duerber and the Big Watch Company Allowed to Resume.

CANTON, Ohio, March 3.—Col. W. A. Moore, manager, and W. A. Lynch, atorney of the Duerber Watch Case Manufacturing company, which assigned Jan. 5, with assets of about $1,000,000 and liabilities of about $350,000, returned from Cincinnati this afternoon. They said that the assignment of the company and the assignment of the property were lifted by Judge Ferris of the probate court, Cincinnati yesterday, and the property reconverted to Mr. Duerber and the Duerber company.

The company has been kept in operation under the order of the court up to the present time, and will resume full operations under more favorable auspices. Arrangements have been made to pay all creditors in full.

The Schlesinger Sale.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., March 3.—Ferdinand Schlesinger returned yesterday from New York, where he went to dispose of his railroad interests on the Northern peninsula. His road, the Escanaba, Iron Mountain and Western, has been sold to a syndicate of capitalists generally understood to represent the Chicago & Northwestern. With the road went one-half of the Chapin mine and a half interest in six steel steamers of the Menominee Transit company now being built at Cleveland. The Florence iron mine was sold to him, too.

Blizzard in South Dakota.

PIERRE, S. D., March 3.—A heavy snow storm which has raged for two days, has increased in force and already more snow has fallen than heretofore this winter together with last. The wind is blowing furiously and trains will be delayed and perhaps blocked. The state and consequently heavy snow is taken with very good grace as means world of benefit to next season's crops. It is hoped the storm will continue a week.

A Philadelphia Fiasco.

PHILADELPHIA, March 3.—John H. Gould, trading as Gould & Co., has failed. His liabilities are $225,000, and the assets will more than meet the debt. Temporary inability to meet claims was the cause of the failure.

A Street Railway Fire.

ST. JOHNSBURG, Vt., March 3.—Fire in the armature room of the Street Railway company's electric power house destroyed fourteen motor houses and five trackage cars. Loss, $30,000; fully insured.

MR. BOYD FINDS TIME

To Think of Other Measures Than His Pet One.

HIS ILLNESS DELAYS THE CHARTER, Which May Not Come up For Several Days; State Senate Adjourned.

ST. PAUL, March 3.—Little of importance was done in either house of the legislature today. House files No. 384 and 385, amending the special laws of 1889 to regulate and fix the compensation of county auditor, treasurer, county commissioners, attorney and assistant, and clerk hire in office of treasurer and auditor of St. Louis county, passed both houses. A bill was introduced fixing the salary of the county sheriff of St. Louis county.

Representative Boyd introduced a bill for an act to amend the laws regulating and confirming the formation of real estate title insurance companies. He also offered an amendment to house file 132, relating to the incorporation of the "Fourth day of March" be amended so as to read "fifth day of May." It was adopted.

Mr. Boyd is ill at the Windsor hotel, and for this reason the West Duluth charter bill is delayed. It had been hoped to call it up today, in fact this was the day fixed upon to bring it before the house. It is not known just when Boyd will be up, probably soon, as he is not seriously ill.

The senate adjourned to give the committee a chance to catch up with their work. Donnelly will be absent until Thursday to lecture before the Wisconsin lawmakers on "Shakespeare and Bacon."

OFFICIALS ASSEMBLE.

Central Traffic and Western Passenger Associations in Convention.

CHICAGO, March 3.—A special meeting of the passenger department of the Central Traffic association opened this morning in the Rookery building, with vice chairman E. C. Donald presiding. Among the important business to be acted upon is a complaint of the Pennsylvania railroad against the Baltimore & Ohio Southwestern for cutting rates between Cincinnati and Pittsburgh, and a second complaint by the Pennsylvania against the Baltimore & Ohio for cutting rates from Columbus, Ohio, to New Orleans.

The Western Passenger association is also in session in the same building, its principal business being to consider a proposition for abolishing the sale of unprinted tickets all over the line in the association. The matter comes up on the report of a special committee consisting of Messrs. Chaglin of the Altam, White of the Santa Fe, Eads of the Burlington, who have had conference with the Central Traffic and Trunk Line associations in which it was agreed, will be presented which if adopted will completely do away with stop-over tickets and thus put an end to a great deal of traveling.

Another important feature which will be discussed at length is a proposition that there should be no payment of any consideration for advertising subscription, or any contribution to any publication or advertising medium issued, published, or distributed in the interest of any shipper or shipping firm. The object of this step is to rid the roads of the importunities of a flood of false advertising sheets that are now being used in connection with the advertising contracts. The roads are tired of this and have concluded to hereafter, advertise only in legitimate publications.

Pierce Not Wanted.

BISMARCK, N. D., March 2.—There is a murmur of protest here over the rumored appointment of Gilbert A. Pierce, of this state as minister to Switzerland. The grounds taken by Pierce during the state organization and his subsequent friendly attitude toward the Louisiana lottery company and the matter of reestablishment of prohibition have made him rather unpopular. Still if no other man from this state is likely to get the appointment it is probable that all objections will be removed.

The North Atlantic Ice Crop.

NEW YORK, March 3.—The reports of three steamships which arrived yesterday indicate that the North Atlantic ice crop is going to be unusually large this season. It is drifting southward fast, and has already made it impossible for navigators to take a safe route in latitude 45°. The skipper of the Burgermeister Petersen intended to do this, the Spruce, of the North German Lloyd line, passed in latitude 45° many ice fields and two big bergs.

Cotton Mills Burn.

NORTH ADAMS, Mass., March 3.—The upper Jacquard weave shed, at Adams, owned by the Renfrow company, was destroyed by fire last evening. The shed was filled with valuable Jacquard looms. Five hundred hands are thrown out of employment by the fire. The loss is placed at $30,000, only partially covered by insurance.

Fitzsimmons and McAuliffe.

NEW YORK, March 3.—A four-round glove contest between Bob Fitzsimmons and Jack McAuliffe has been arranged. Fitzsimmons to win will have to knock McAuliffe out in a specified time; if Jack stays four rounds he will win.

The Weather.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—Indications for twenty-four hours: For Iowa and Minnesota: Clearing; colder, northerly winds; cold wave in eastern portion.

Whew!

ST. JOHNSBURG, Vt., March 3.—The temperature is 40° below zero here today.

The Clerks' Concert.

One of the novelties of the concert concert at the Temple Opera tomorrow evening will be a "cello solo without piano accompaniment" by Ernest Lachmand. Mr. Lachmand has suspended his harpist, plays a composition of his own which the Pioneer Press says "was loudly enjoyed" at one of Seibert's concerts. A criticism of the Marquette Mining Journal on Miss Margaret McDonald's singing, reads: "The audience was delighted with Miss McDonald's solos and she was enthusiastically recalled. This lady has a soprano voice of great power and has thoroughly cultivated it."

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

Secretary Young Says the Organization Has Not Suffered.

NEW YORK, March 3.—The magnates of the National league are gathered this morning in the Fifth avenue hotel. When the recent Chicago meeting came to an end it was with the understanding that both the league and the association should hold meetings today for the purpose of arranging dates and avoiding a conflict. Today, however, the American association is a thing of the past, Cincinnati being its only tangible grip upon existence. No terms of compromise will be considered during the present meeting by the National league—officers even if any are offered and there will be no forgiveness by the National league.

Secretary N. E. Young says that more than $50,000 is represented at today's meeting. Before night a schedule for the playing season of '91 will have been arranged and the constitution of the National league revised to conform with the new National agreement. "Most assuredly," says Secretary Young, "the National league has in no way suffered by the withdrawal of the American association, nor would any strong body be affected by the loosening of a weaker one."

The story that the association would endeavor to get square with the league by notifying the Western association that in case the league acting as the representatives of the national agreement ignores contracts made by the association with its players, and signs them regardless of such signed agreements, the association will retaliate by taking from the Western association such desirable players as may be found necessary to fill the vacancies already made, is regarded as a final bluff which will fall short of its mark, as it is doubtful if there is a single Western association player that could be induced to leave his club and go with an organization that is in the present straits of the association.

A TIPPERARY FIGHT.

Factions of the National League Indulge in a Fine Fracas.

BELFAST, March 3.—Henry Harrison, the member of parliament for Middle Tipperary, visited the office of the Belfast branch of the National League last night and seized all the money and documents that were in the hands of the branch. The members of that branch were hastily summoned and a free fight followed. The battle was of the most stubborn character, fists, sticks and knives being freely used. Finally the police appeared in force and cleared the league building of its fighting occupants.

MUNICIPAL PROBLEM.

St. Paul School Teachers Are Threatening a General Strike.

ST. PAUL, March 3.—Yesterday was payday for the city employees and about $40,000 was paid out in the afternoon. The school teachers, however, were not paid. The school teachers, however, were not paid. The school teachers, however, were not paid. The school teachers, however, were not paid.

QUEER FIND.

Skeleton Found in an Enclosed Subterranean Chamber.

ANSTED, W. Va., March 3.—A most remarkable discovery was made here yesterday by miners in the employ of the Yanley Mountain Coal company, who are driving a drift under Rich Creek mountain. At a point 1200 feet from the entrance the miners broke into an empty space 20 by 16 feet, in the center of which lay a human skeleton, which crumbled into dust on exposure to the air. In one corner were the remains of an iron vessel, and on the walls near many inscriptions and crude figures of trees and animals.

A careful investigation failed to show that there was ever any opening from the surface to the chamber, and no one present could solve the problem presented.

MANAGERS EXERCISED.

Will Push the "Millage Book Forgery" to the Higher Courts.

CHICAGO, March 3.—Railroad managers here are somewhat exercised over the decision by the Iowa court that it is not necessary to sign another's name to a millage ticket. The decision is a victory for ticket scalpers, and it is believed that the case will be appealed. Scalpers contemplate pushing their advantage and a large number of suits against railroads for taking up books under similar circumstances are threatened.

The Plate Manufacturer.

JOLIET, Ill., March 3.—A contract has been executed between Juliet property owners and Lewis Bros., of Pittsburgh, Pa., and Wales, by which South Joliet has secured a $500,000 tin plate plant to occupy twenty acres and furnish 3000 space of over 200,000 square feet. Lewis Bros. are members of a family who have been manufacturing tin plate for many generations in England.

United Mine Workers Meet.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., March 3.—The first national convention of district 11, of the United Mine Workers of America, comprising the entire state of Indiana, opened here today. Next year's mining season in the state together with the eight hour day movement and other questions of importance are on the docket for consideration.

More Starved for Oklahoma.

GAINESVILLE, Tex., March 3.—During the past ten days some 2000 negroes have passed through this city en route to Oklahoma to settle there. Nearly all come from Eastern Texas and they are a distressed and hard-looking set, destitute of money, clothing, provisions, farming implements and everything necessary to prevent starvation and suffering.

A French Bank Suspends.

PARIS, March 3.—The lending public bank of Berry has suspended payment. The firm is that of Gayette & Dulard, and their liabilities are estimated at 6,000,000 francs.

Splendid Residence Burned.

ELKHART, Ind., March 3.—The residence of Ex-Gov. Richard J. Oglesby at Oglesby, burned yesterday. The loss is fully $25,000. All the governor's curios and relics of war were destroyed.

TO SURVEY GREAT AREAS.

What Itasca and Beltrami Counties Will Add

TO DULUTH'S LAND DISTRICT.

Dr. Howes Talks on the Section to Which Capital is Going.

Dr. Howes returned today from his special mission to Washington to obtain a land office for Grand Rapids. "We could not get a separate land district," said he, "because of the shortness of the present session of congress, so we did the next best thing, secured the addition of Itasca and Beltrami counties to the Duluth district. There are at present 1,350,000 acres of unsurveyed territory in Itasca county and 207,300 acres of unsurveyed territory in Beltrami county, which will nearly all be surveyed this summer and fall and will all come under the jurisdiction of the Duluth land office. We knew that some step had to be taken at once to divide the St. Cloud district because we knew perfectly well that the day would come to power and anything was known about dividing the St. Cloud district there would be music in the air immediately because Stearns county is home. We took the bull by the horns and the result is the St. Cloud district will be divided before he has anything to say about it and when we go before congress next fall to get a separate land office for Grand Rapids, it will be plain sailing.

"There is plenty of territory for a land office at that point. Taylor's Falls has only 105,000 and St. Cloud 600,000 acres."

In regard to the situation Dr. Howes said: "I find that the great bulk of capital at the present time is going South. There is going to be an enormous amount of railroad building and development in the South this year, and if a man wants to make money he should get aboard of the band wagon and follow the stream of capital. There are wonderful chances in the East also which the slow coaches down there do not catch onto. Take the city of Washington which disbursts through the government a salary of $2,000 a month every month making a small monthly stipend of $20,000,000 and yet the enterprising real estate rustlers down there scarcely color a dollar of it. Just think of selling acreage within a few blocks of the outskirts of Washington for $500 per acre. You know better than that around Duluth. I tell you there is a fortune for somebody who will go down there and build up tasteful suburbs where cheap rent and fine college architecture prevails or where houses can be bought on the monthly installment plan."

THE IVES COLLECTION.

Wall Street Squeeze I've Got Too Hard for Mr. Ives and Mr. Seney.

NEW YORK, March 3.—Unfortunate results of the recent squeeze in Wall street have made necessary the sale of Mr. Ives' and Mr. Seney's magnificent collections of pictures, bric-a-brac and books. About two weeks ago the latter gentlemen voluntarily knocked down his almost priceless collection of paintings to the highest bidder, and now the invited public stroll through the sumptuous rooms of the American art galleries taking note of Mr. Ives' stock in trade.

Brayton Ives, when he retired from business two years since, counted his fortune by a couple of millions and had earned a fine record on the street and on the control of the Northern Pacific. He is a self-made man, but cultivated, and knows more about ceramics, books and antique bric-a-brac than the managers of the museum he has just sold.

In Eastern squares, pottery, carvings and rare volumes he has during the last twenty years invested very nearly $1,000,000. Last year he was drawn into business again, and since the squeeze he has suddenly discovered that his house is not so solid as he had supposed. He is now endeavoring to hold the accumulated relics of the past. Therefore the sale on the auction he expects to realize $500,000, and on those edition de luxe catalogues alone he should clear a net sum. George Vanderbilt will stop long enough to undertake the auction and buy up half the collection of illuminated missals.

And Where is It?

ST. LOUIS, Mo., March 3.—A poll just made of the Missouri legislature resulted as follows: Cleveland, 35; Palmer, 10; Boies, 7; Gray, 1. Eleven members were non-committal, and eleven were simply "against Cleveland." The republicans were unanimous for Blaine.

To Go to Chicago.

MILWAUKEE, March 3.—Nearly all the offices of the Wisconsin Central Railroad company are likely to be removed soon to Chicago, although the officials of the company are very reticent on the subject. General Manager A. J. A. of the Wisconsin Central railroad, estimated yesterday that a portion of the company's offices might be removed to Chicago, as it had been found necessary for the facilities of business. It has been expected since the lease of the road to the Northern Pacific that it was only a question of time when all the offices would be taken to Chicago, whether the traffic departments have already been removed. This further removal is in line with the announced consolidation.

Fears for the Small Fruit.

ST. JOSEPH, Mich., March 3.—This was the coldest of the season, but dry and clear. The mercury sunk to 10° below zero with no wind. It is feared it will injure the small fruits.

A LESSON FOR OTHER IOWAS.

The bright spot in the railway horizon at present, says the Railway Age, appears to be in the sunny South, and while nearly all Northern states seem bent on doing everything within their power to retard railway progress and even to confiscate the property which has done more than any other to make them the prosperous commonwealths which they stand today, it is cheerful to note that the new South is crying hands off against every measure that attacks the vested rights of railway properties or that attempts to discourage the investment of capital to develop their material resources.

It is interesting to note in this connection that the nearly half the railway construction last year was south of the Mason and Dixon line and the increase in wealth, commercial supremacy and political power which this portends it would be well for the demagogues and malcontents to take into calculation. The new South proclaims against the communism of grangers or any other class that would antagonize interests of the capital which has brought to them a new era of prosperity.

A NOTABLE TRIUMPH.

Great reforms usually move by gradual stages. The postal subsidy measure has passed congress and in view of the extraordinarily violent opposition that had to be encountered, it constitutes a great and important victory. The principle of government encouragement to our unprotected and struggling merchant marine is now definitely established. It will now become for the first time since 1858 the fixed and recognized policy of the American republic. Once thus established the extension of the principle will be easy.

There will unquestionably be regret that the bill as it now stands is not the comprehensive measure that was first intended. But though battles yet remain to be fought, the United States is now committed to that policy of general recognition of its shipping the lack of which has so long marked us as peculiar among all the commercial nations of the world.

Chief Smith of the fire department, expresses surprise that a gas meter in hose house No. 1 registered 1200 feet while it was shut off. The chief's surprise is the wrong way. An everyday, unfrilled citizen would be surprised if his meter should register so little as 1200 feet in a month of "closure." A gas meter never stops debate.

It now looks as if the position of city clerk, to be voted on by the new council this evening, would result in a deadlock for a time at least. Both C. E. Budden and Frank Burke claim six votes solid. It appears to be possible that a dark horse may step into the ring. C. E. Richardson has been mentioned as a candidate and will probably be in the field this evening if the leading candidates are evenly balanced. Next to C. E. Budden Mr. Richardson is probably the best man mentioned.

A resolution was passed by the city council last night expressing the council's recognition of the "undoubted loyalty to the interests of the city and St. Louis county" by Senator Daugherty and Representative Kinney and Kendall. The council believed that their efforts should not pass without recognition on the part of those in whose behalf such efforts have been made. And where is brother Boyd? Perhaps the council considers that he represents only one corner of the district and lets public business go by default while he cares for "home."

It appears that the project of holding a commercial congress of the Western states has been making progress. Word now comes from Kansas to the effect that it has been decided to hold the convention in Kansas City a week, beginning April 15. It appears that at least one-half of the states and territories invited have already responded favorably, and in some instances the delegates have been appointed. As has been already stated, the convention has been called for the purpose of considering economic questions affecting Western interests. The promoters of the project think that it is a timely and a necessary one, and that it will inaugurate a movement which will result in the greatest benefit to the Western states.

Carroll D. Wright, United States commissioner of labor, says that the increase in the consumption of iron in the United States rose from 105,64 pounds per capita in 1870 to 233.38 pounds in 1890; while the consumption of cotton per capita increased from 5.9 in 1870 to nearly nineteen pounds in 1890. From this it would seem that there will be no lack of demand for the product of the iron mines of the Northwest or of the cotton fields of the South.

There is to be a banquet at Chattanooga next week under the auspices of the Chattanooga Steel company, which will be of a character calculated to cause fraternal trade brother to decorate his columns with mourning. The banquet celebrates the establishment of the American tin plate industry. The service for the occasion will be made wholly of American tin plate, and champagne will be drunk from tin cups, in response to the toast, "To the New American Industry." The table ware is now being prepared at the Niedringhaus works in St. Louis. The steel is made at Chattanooga. The plates are rolled and tinned at St. Louis. Finally, to make the American character of the product complete beyond the most captious criticism, even the tin with which the plate is coated is an American product, coming from the Black Hills. And thus does the United States move forward and so are the enemies of American industries confounded.

Tariff Pictures.

New York Press: "The Press" told you that "in the long run" the McKinley duty on eggs would simply transfer the market heretofore enjoyed by the producers of so many imported eggs to the American poulters; that enough American eggs would be forthcoming, and that it wouldn't be such a very "long run," either. Well, eggs were a few weeks ago, but last week they dropped to 10 cents a dozen.

MARCH.

[From the Ladies Home Journal.]
Light-footed March, wild maid of spring,
Your footsteps hither stray,
Selling blent with tears with April bring—
The April's sentimental way—
But your wild winds with laughter ring,
While young and old your will obey:
A moment here, then on the wing,
Coquetish March, what games you play!
I know a maid as blithe as you—
The child of the ice-king and the Sun—
At her fair feet fond lovers woo:
She looks and jives them, every one;
And then she smiles—more merry they are!
Then blows she cold—they are undone:
Oh March! could you or she be true,
Then all were taught, so you were won.
LOUISE CLARK, New York.

THE PUBLIC LIBRARY.

At a meeting of the Duluth public library board held last night several important matters were considered. The phenomenal growth of the library into the hearts of the people was shown by the library's monthly report, which showed a total circulation of 4800 volumes in the month—considerably more than 1000 over the total number of volumes on the shelves—a highest daily use of 358 books, and an average daily use of 211. There were out on March 1, about 1400 volumes and there are 1800 users. A month ago the highest number of books used was 250, the number out on Feb. 1 was 1103, while there are 1300 users. Every month since the library opened the attendance at the reading room and the use of books has increased, and it is said that there is no library in America showing such a percentage of use to the number of books.

At the meeting last night Trustees McGrick offered the following resolution which the secretary was directed to send to the two sons of ex-Senator B. F. Wade of Ohio, one of whom is a candidate at Port Reno, the other living at Jefferson, Ohio:

The board of directors of the public library of the city of Duluth, assembled in meeting on March 2, beg leave to offer sincere thanks for the citizens of Duluth, for the valuable collection of books, known as the "Wade Congressional Library," presented for the use of our public library.

On motion of Secretary Woodbridge an experiment was inaugurated in the use of magazines, which if successful will be extended and is hoped may become one of the most valuable features of the entire library. It was the decision to subscribe for three or four extra copies each of leading magazines, which shall be placed on shelves and given out as books, individual use being limited to three days. It was decided to begin with the Century, Cosmopolitan, Harper's Monthly, Scribner's and St. Nicholas, and the idea is to be carried out at once, several of the extra magazines being on hand today. If the experiment proves successful the list will be increased, possibly by the addition of a number of the heavier and valuable reviews.

Trustees Ensign and McGrick of the book committee are to meet this week and make out additional lists of large numbers of books which are to be bought at once. It is hoped to increase the library by 4000 or 5000 volumes this year.

THE FIRST LAKE STEAMER.

Landed of the Walk-in-the-Water at Black Rock on May 28, 1818.

(Toronto Mail.)

It is quite possible, though not probable, that there are persons still living in Canada or the United States who were, early in their lives, passengers on the first steam vessel that ever sailed the great lakes. This pioneer steamer made her first first voyage fifteen years before the Royal William, the first genuine Atlantic steamship, sailed from Quebec to London, and even before the Savannah, which was merely a sailing vessel rigged with rude paddle wheels, made the transatlantic trip partly with the aid of steam. And yet it is only seventy-three years since the Walk-in-the-Water made her first voyage between Buffalo and Detroit.

The Walk-in-the-Water, so named after a Wyandotte chief, was launched at Black Rock on May 28, 1818. Her engine had been built in New York and was thought powerful enough to force her up the swift current of the river to Lake Erie. It proved unable to do so, however, and after several days had been spent in repeated unsuccessful attempts the captain sent for twelve yoke of oxen and hitched them to the huge chain attached to the vessel. Then all steam was crowded on, the oxen pulled, and up stream to the lake went the Walk-in-the-Water. The first trip to Detroit was completed on Aug. 27, and occupied forty-four hours and ten minutes. The fare was $15. Upon the arrival of the boat at Detroit a leading literary society of the town appointed a committee to report upon her. With an occasional trip to Mackinac for furs for the Astors she continued on the Lake Erie route for three years, calling on each voyage at various ports. As there were no piers at these points she usually lay to in the offing and transferred her passengers and freight to lighters. There was, however, a wharf at Detroit up to which she usually came with a bump, and if the wind was against her when the time for departure came she was pushed out into the current with cedar poles. Amusing stories are told of the consternation of the Indians at the appearance of what they regarded as a fire breathing demon. Some of the settlers also could scarcely be convinced that the steamer never employed a crew of supernatural beings. The Walk-in-the-Water carried a number of distinguished passengers during her brief career. On one occasion, upon her arrival at Detroit, Lord and Lady Selkirk on board, the former was arrested by a United States marshal for "serious crimes against the laws of the United States." The Earl went quietly up town, submitted to trial, and was discharged on the ground that his arrest, having been made on Sunday, was illegal. On Oct. 31, 1821, the little vessel left Black Rock on what proved to be her last voyage. After she had gone a little way out into the lake a storm blew up and finally drove her back upon the shore near the mouth of the river. She was subsequently removed to the Superior, and her hull was left to rot away.

With the changes that have since taken place in the traffic on the lakes our readers are familiar. Today there are in these waters a fleet of vessels, with a tonnage of 523,702 tons and a valuation of $48,434,350. Of these 68, built of steel, are valued at $11,954,500, and many of them are of the iron class. And yet the lake traffic is still in its infancy, though growing with marvelous rapidity. Unfortunately little of it belongs to us.

WORLD OF COMMERCE.

Cash Wheat and Future on the Duluth Market.

MONEY MARKETS IN THE EAST.

Leading Speculative Commodities in All the Leading Markets of the World.

Dullness and inactivity were the features of the market today. Buyers and sellers of futures fought shy of each other. In the technical language of the board one was afraid and the other wasn't. Foreign cables reported wheat firm but with little demand. Such news as was received was very conflicting. The news from the cold wave was offset by the report of snows in the winter wheat regions. The Northwestern Miller figured out that there is in sight 2,188,000 bu of wheat against 2,000,000 a year ago at this time. The increase of grain on passage is 450,000 bu. There were no orders here for a general order of dullness in wheat throughout the country. There were consequently no trades in futures. The close here was steady at yesterday's closing figures without change except that May No. 1 hard closed with sellers instead of buyers as yesterday. No. 1 northern cash wheat to arrive sold in the forenoon in large lots at 92½¢ the price remaining unchanged from yesterday.

The closing prices were as follows:

	Cash	Mar	May
No. 1 hard	92 1/2	93 1/2	94 1/2
No. 1 Northern	91 1/2	92 1/2	93 1/2
No. 2 Northern	89 1/2	90 1/2	91 1/2

Cash on track: Wheat, 25; last year, 24; Receipts: Wheat, 17,504 bu; Inspection: Class No. 1 hard, 35; No. 1 northern, 33; No. 2 northern, 6; total, 74.

Flour Statement.

The following is a statement of the flour ground, received, shipped and in store at Duluth for the past week:

	Name	Recd.	Shipped	In store
Imperial mill	Imperial	5,541	12,520	10,000
Duluth Roller mill	Duluth	5,175	4,600	10,000
Eastern Minn. R. R.	Eastern	9,125	29,425	10,000
Total		14,425	11,185	30,000

Same period last year: 14,425, 11,185, 30,000.

The flour production of the week was 11,185 bls, 581 at the Imperial mill, which ran half the week, and 2,204 at the Duluth roller.

Local Bank Clearings today were $170,243.70.

Chicago Close.

Chicago, March 3.—The wheat market has been very dull today and prices within a narrow range, closing at the opening. The crowd got short early, and when the market commenced to firm up they bought freely to cover, but after they got through it sagged back for lack of outside support. Opening cables dull, and late ones quoted 1/4 lower.

DIED.

MANLEY.—Monday, March 2, at 10 p. m., Mary Francis Morgan, wife of Lillian B. Manley, of this city.

Mrs. Mary Manley was in her 24th year, and was born in Towanda, Pa. She leaves one child 3 years old. The funeral will be held on Wednesday afternoon from 407 East First street, and her body will be buried here. Mrs. Stanley had made a host of warm friends during her residence here, and the announcement of her death is received with widespread grief, while her bereaved husband has the deepest sympathy.

PERRY.—On Monday, March 2, Willie E. Perry, of consumption, died in his home at Lakeside.

About a year ago Mr. Perry suffered from a attack of grip, from which he never recovered, the trouble developing into consumption and other complications. He was one of the well-known and highly respected young men of the city, and was for several years sergeant-major of the Second regiment M. N. G. About a year ago he married a daughter of Mrs. Wilmot Seager. They had no children.

Killed by Coasting.

John Proffitt, a young victim of the coasting accident that occurred about three weeks ago on West Third street, died last night. His left leg was amputated but the shock was too great and he died. He will be buried from his parents' home tomorrow. He had been employed in The Herald press room for a long time, and was a bright and faithful boy.

Gorman's Worthless Wealth.

In November last Pat Gorman, formerly of Duluth, stabbed and killed a man named Sullivan at West Superior. He was tried and found guilty of manslaughter in the third degree. Yesterday a prominent mining operator called at the jail and made Gorman a handsome offer for his mine claim in the Vermilion range. Gorman's counsel made an investigation and found that the claim was worth over $100,000. Gorman never dreamed of the wealth in his iron claim. His brain seems to have been turned by this sudden announcement, coupled with a keen sense of his hopeless condition. A stay of proceedings has been asked on the ground of his mental condition.

THE WORLD'S FAIR.

Chicago has at last apparently settled all differences and sunk all questions of difference in the matter of the Columbian exposition. There seems to be a realizing sense of the vastness of the project and of the fact that if Chicago, and through her the nation, is not to be a butt of ridicule it will be necessary to get at once to work. Such a conclusion at the city where the fair is to be held will do much to solidify public sentiment and to gain for the fair the support it so much needs, without which, in fact, it can but be an abortive attempt.

States and individuals will now, in a true American way, rally to its aid. The state of Minnesota is expected to do her part, and no trifling or playmate part either, in the pushing forward of this great work. Duluth as well as St. Paul and other sections of the state, is urging on the legislature an appropriation of $300,000 for its proper representation at what will probably be the greatest event of its kind the world has ever seen. Three hundred thousand dollars is none too much for a showing of the products of the farms and forests, the mines and mills of the North Star state.

At a meeting of the Duluth chamber of commerce yesterday afternoon, the following resolutions on this subject were adopted:

Whereas, The World's fair to be held in Chicago in 1893 will necessarily be judged by the high standard set by previous international exhibitions, notably that recently held in Paris, and it is therefore the duty of all patriotic Americans to do all in their power to make it an unequalled success; and

Whereas, It is certain that the states of the Union which make the most complete showing of their resources will reap the greatest benefits in the form of influx of capital and increase of population; and

Whereas, In the whole stock of states there is none richer in natural resources of field, forest and mine than our own state of Minnesota; therefore,

Resolved, By the Duluth chamber of commerce that we respectfully but earnestly petition your honorable body to pass a bill appropriating the sum of $300,000 for the purpose of making a Minnesota exhibit at Chicago.

Such a petition deserves only commendation and should be followed by like action by organized bodies throughout the state.

A PECULIAR QUESTION.

The mysterious committee of three, to whom was referred the second examination of the water supply, appeared in the council last night and asked, through President Hugo, whether they could bring a water expert to Duluth. What did, or does, this committee think it is for? Is it to find out anything, or is it to act upon hearsay? If the latter, no expert is needed; if the former, the committee should have sense enough to get an expert without delaying to ask the council or anyone else.

And, by the way, isn't it about time we heard something about the work of this committee?

And also by the way, isn't it about time that reports were received from the bacteriologists to whom was sent water at the same time samples were sent to Dr. Vaughan? Nearly a month ago Dr. Vaughan made his report. Can it be possible that the other scientists are so slow that they have not yet sent in returns?

Dr. Goffe says they haven't, but the best of men are sometimes mistaken. It may be a matter of interest in this connection that it was an unwary newspaper item and a private telegram from Dr. Vaughan to The Herald that brought to the public eye his report, and that Dr. Goffe was astonished to learn that anything "should have got out."

The fifty-first congress died today. The city council of 1890-1 adjourned without day last evening. Grover Cleveland is ill. Are any other great bodies in trouble?

Ex-City Clerk Budden has served the council and the city honestly and sedulously for more years than usually falls to the lot of office-holder. He has been clerk for twelve years. The termination of the service of such an officer deserves more than passing notice. Clerk Budden has been a careful and courteous officer, and the city hall will hardly know itself without him.

Candler, the three cent statesman noted only for his venustous opposition to the World's fair, is now notorious in his own state by his assistance in killing the shipping bill. In one case he was as much of a misrepresentation as in the other. If Massachusetts sends such men to congress she cannot object to her own loss of influence and position.

The province of Alberta, which lies on the eastern slope of the Rocky Mountains, promises great mineral wealth, according to the preliminary report of W. S. Drury, of the Dominion Topographical survey. In this region anthracite coals in seams from twenty feet to fifty feet thick is reported to have been discovered; ores of gold, silver, copper and lead have been found. Evidence also goes to show that petroleum fields underlie the plains of Alberta. Natural gas is already utilized there in a limited degree.

The repeal of the Bennett school law in Wisconsin does not by any means settle the school question in that state, but rather begins an agitation which will only be ended by the triumph of the American school idea. It has also had the effect of directing public attention to the evil of giving instruction in foreign languages in our public schools in other states as well as in Wisconsin. The evil exists to quite an extent in Texas. In the city of Corpus Christi there is a public school which does not employ a single text-book in the English language. Every volume in Spanish, and the whole system of education is un-American. This country is neither Spain, Germany, France, Ireland nor Scandinavia, though one might sometimes think so.

THE WATER QUESTION.

A Thorough Review of the Subject From a Citizen's Point of View.

To the Editor of the Herald:

There has been agitation concerning the prevalent scourge of typhoid fever that is, and for months has been, afflicting our city. I feel a deep interest in the matter, and desire to submit some of my ideas. Two weeks ago last Monday I took part in a mass meeting held in the chamber of commerce rooms, called to consider this subject. At that meeting a set of resolutions were prepared to be submitted for action. Among those was one that purported to express the situation, giving the number of typhoid cases in the city, etc. Before the resolutions were offered, several of Duluth's wealthiest and most influential citizens so vigorously protested against that section, for the reason as expressed by them, that it would injure the city financially, that it was stricken out. It was then claimed by these gentlemen, that the object of the meeting (the obtaining of pure water promptly) could be accomplished without such action, and thus save the city the loss which such a publication would occasion. The resolutions as adopted by that meeting were presented that evening to the city council in open session, and were referred to the committee on gas and water.

Two weeks have elapsed and while the epidemic is on the increase nothing worth mentioning has been, or is being done. The time has come when for the sake of the city, the object of the meeting should be accomplished. The resolutions as adopted by that meeting were presented that evening to the city council in open session, and were referred to the committee on gas and water.
